Dear Mr. Timmins:

It has been brought to our attention that your web site www.telcodata.us offers to provide information related to CLLI codes to subscribers. CLLI codes are generated by Telcordia Technologies, Inc. and are licensed by Telcordia to interested parties. The license restricts further dissemination of the codes and code related information to others.

Our records do not indicate that either Paul Timmins or Timmins Technologies, LLC are licensees of Telcordia.

Therefore, we ask that (1) you cease and desist from offering CLLI code information to your subscribers, (2) you remove the CLLI codes from your web site, and (3) you return to Telcordia all unauthorized copies of CLLI codes in your possession.

Please send us written confirmation of your compliance with our request. If we have not received an affirmative response, we shall pursue all means necessary to protect Telcordia's legal and equitable rights.

Sincerely,

Philip J. Feig
